

Curriculum Vitae Senator Dietrich Wersich,
Head of the Social Services, Family Affairs, Health and Consumer Protection Authority

- 1964 born in Hamburg, four brothers
- 1984 Abitur (general qualification for university entrance) taken at the Johanneum Grammar School (focus upon the classics and the humanities) in Hamburg
- 1985 basic military service

Medical training and practice

- 1986 - 1992 Medical studies at the University of Hamburg
- 1993 - 1999 Medical work in hospital (in the AK Ochsenzoll, Bethanien Hospital) in the disciplines internal medicine, geriatrics and geriatric psychiatry
- 2000 - 2002 Medical work in general medicine and surgical practice; medical specialist for general medicine

Avocational activity in the field of culture

- from 1995 to 2004 Owner-manager of STÄITSCH TheaterbetriebsGmbH (from 1995 the Altona Theatre and since 2003 the Hamburg Kammerspiele (intimate theatre) and Harburg Theatre in addition)

Political activities

- Since 1980, various functions within the CDU, later on representative of the Environmental Authority, local political activities, regional elected representative, since 2000 member of the CDU State Executive Board
- 1997 - 2004 Member of the Hamburg Parliament; amongst other things, Spokesman for Health Care policies and Secretary of the Health Select Committee; in addition, Social Committee and Public Accounts Committee; Scientific Committee, Parliamentary Committee of Inquiry
- 01.04.2004 until 30.04.2006 State Council of the Science and Health Authority (Health sector)
- 22.03.2006 until 30.04.2006 at the same time, State Council of the Social Services and Family Affairs Authority
- 01.05.2006 until 07.05.2008 State Council of the Social Services, Family Affairs, Health and Consumer Protection Authority
- from 07.05.2008 Head of the Social Services, Family Affairs, Health and Consumer Protection Authority